

The Miami Herald

INTERNATIONAL EDITION

September 3, 2006

WHAT'S IN STORE

● HOW NOW, BROWN ... tomato? Yup, if the fruit in question is Dulcinea Farms' Rosso Bruno. The California company that made a splash with its Pure Heart personal-size watermelon is out with a full-flavored premium tomato that turns a deep, reddish brown when ripe. It's tasty, but, for our money, no more so than a good grape tomato. Its billiard-ball size makes it suitable for slicing, though. It's available at Fresh Markets (freshmarket.com); suggested retail: $3.99 a pound or $2.29 a two-pack.

— KATHY MARTIN

