Dulcinea appoints director of finance

Tessa Sarrazin was appointed as director of finance and administration at Dulcinea Farms in Ladera Ranch. She will oversee the company's financial operations for production, marketing, information technology and facilities.

"Her 11 years of experience in financial management with top consumer brands make her a great asset as we continue to build our valued produce brand," said Keith Kato, the company's general manager.

Before joining Dulcinea Farms, Sarrazin served as director of planning and reporting for the grocery products division of ConAgra Foods Inc. in Irvine.
