

THE PACKER

For 114 Years, the Business Newspaper of the Produce Industry

Feb. 19, 2007

PEOPLE

WEST

Tessa Sarrazin will bring her 11 years of experience in financial management to Dulcinea Farms, Ladera Ranch, Calif.

Sarrazin is leaving her job as director of planning & reporting for the Grocery Products Division of ConAgra Foods Inc., Irvine Calif., to be Dulcinea Farms' director of finance and administration.

Her duties include overseeing financial operations for production, marketing, information technology and facilities.

Sarrazin said she hopes to help expand Dulcinea Farms's business while at her position.

In her years in financial management, Sarrazin worked for ConAgra Foods, where she was in charge of the monthly financial reporting and planning processes, and also the analysis of operating results.

Before ConAgra she worked for Black & Decker Corporation, Lake Forest, Calif., for seven years, where she held a variety of jobs, including group finance manager for Kwikset Worldwide in the Hardware and Home Improvement group.